Your food food contemporary European with international influences and serve up to 12 guests. We ate there in the new year and we had a great time. If you are after a tasting menu for a fraction of the price that you will pay in a restaurant, this is the dinner club for you. B with alive with up to 10 guests, the amphitrón Boris serves a 4 -plates dinner that consists of its entire crude vegan food in an elegant house of the loft in Kreuzberg. It will not be discouraged by the raw vegan bit, they have assured us that "it will not receive a hippie salad with crushed outbreaks and carrots. Boris's creations are small pieces of art that offer an unknown experience in delicate flavors and textures. I © isna in seasonality and orgal food, we are very interested á € á € ·In continuing to try this unusual cuisine" raw of carefully ingredients of origin. Daniel's restaurant, Daniel, houses up to 10 guests in Prenzlauer Berg in two consecutive days per month. Its food is international, with a seasonal element and is particularly interested in giving a turn to the ingredients or family dishes, to present them unusually or in a new context. We are eager to try it soon. Entretempo interweave aims to combine art and food in its kitchen in the quiet Stargardo Star-and weekly artist in Prenzauer, surrounded by the works of current exhibitions and artists. Taniá E Ater Guedes and its small chefs equipment create each dish in the open plant kitchen that covers the background of the gallery space. Each dinner club is based on a different theme; The previous ones have included a film night, where each course has the theme of the selected scenes of the movie of the night. Festin, a very small dinner club in Schåñeberg, Festin serves up to 12 guests, but really specializes in the creation of nights for couples, then, if you want to ask the question to partner, this is the place to bring him/her. Hostess Deborah is from New York City, cooks a whole range of cuisines (with truffles and chipotles listed on her website as two particular obsessions) and will take requests for special dishes. ShecÁÁÁll also travel and cook for you in your own home. Food FellowsÁ Á Food Fellows, who describe themselves as a eÁÁAsocial food learning communityeÁÁÁ Á Ainvite guests toÁ Áchoose from a varietyÁ Áof supper club hosts, from GermanyeÁÁÁs youngest Michelin-starred cook to some of BerlincÁÁÁs finest street food artists. The twist with these dinners is that, as well as enjoying a yummy dinner, youeÁÁÁll also be taught how to cook the dish as everyone rolls up their sleeves and helps prepare the meal together. MothereÁÁÁs Mother MothereÁÁÁs Mother is a dinner club that celebrates MotherseÁÁÁ and GrandmothersÁÁÁ food from around the world. Every meal is created by a new chef and pays homage to one single Mother. Organiser Kavita finds chefs and cooks and tasks them with creating a special menu based on the food they grew up eating as a child. A great concept, and weeÁÁÁll certainly be going along soon. Update: MothereÁÁÁs Mother will be taking their supper club to New York for Winter 2014 Mulax More of a pop-up restaurant than a supper club; nevertheless, Mulax certainly belongs in this list. Their motto is eÁÁÁKunst.Kultur.Kulinarik. eÁÁÁ (Art.Culture.Cuisine.) and they describe themselves as a social network dining room, with a real emphasis on getting to know new people. Two long tables seat up to 24 guests in a courtyard in Kreuzberg. Additionally, artists and musicians are invited to present work during the dinners. Mund Art Berlin Gourmet vegan food in a variety of Berlin locations. The number of guests depends on the venue, but they generally cater for larger groups, with most dinners seating between 20 eÁÁÁ 40 people. They prefer to use regional products where possible, and enjoy seeking out ingredients from small producers, with interesting stories behind them. Hostesses and cooks, Felicia and Nicole, are both food bloggers of longstanding with a real passion for culinary veganism. Parlour Dinners Parlour Dinners This supper club takes place in a showroom for handmade wooden furniture and seems to be designed to showcase quality food and unique handmade furniture. We particularly like the concept of bringing the hand-designed furniture to the forefront eÁÁÁ as every host knows, a great party is about more than just great food. Update: Parlour Dinners are currently looking for a new location and will resume cooking in early 2015. Speisenklub NeukÁÁÁlln Run by a German woman, Speisenklub NeukÁÁÁlln meets on the last Sunday of every month with up to 20 guests. Menus and locations change every time, but they have always an emphasis on fresh and preferably organic ingredients (see Cathrin eÁÁÁs comment below). Zagreus Projekt The Zagreus Projekt is not exactly a supper club, but certainly falls into the category of alternative dining. Set in a small art gallery in Brunnenstrasse, the concept is that an artist works in conjunction with the chef to create an installation and menu that is inspired by the art. Installations change every couple of months or so, and the menu alters accordingly. Dinners are held every two weeks or so, and Zagreus hosts twenty or so guests. For supperclubs outside of Berlin,Á Áthis websiteÁ Árun byÁ ÁKerstin Rodgers AKA MsMarmiteLoverÁ Áhas a good worldwide list. About The Author Thyme SupperclubÁ Áis a hobby project run by a keen amateur cook and an oenophileÁ Á(wine connoisseur), who host dinners in their own home for friends, guests and food enthusiasts. Founded in 2010, and one of the first supper clubs in Berlin, Thyme Supperclub entertains 18 guests at an eight-course meal, once a month, with guests invited to contribute a donation to cover costs.
